Reading the newspaper usually gives you a more informative view into the happenings of the world and often a less biased. It's damn near impossible to avoid bias in the media but the nature of the newspaper is definitely a lot less click bait and more pure fact.

What I Learned From Reading The Newspaper Everyday This

March is National Reading Awareness Month and when MetroFamily's editor, Hannah Schmitt, asked if I wanted to write about it, I instantly agreed. Literacy is a topic I follow because books played a pivotal role in my childhood and there's no way I'd be the same person without them .
